

SENATE BILL NO. 200.

Executive Office,
State of Texas.

Austin, April 1, 1909.

To the Secretary of State:

I herewith transmit for file in the office of the Secretary of State Senate bill No. 200 without my approval. This is a bill passed by the Thirty-first Legislature at its Regular Session, and provides for the creation of an independent school district known as the Goliad Independent School District, including within its limits the unincorporated town of Goliad, in Goliad county. Section 38, Article 3 of the Constitution of this State provides that all bills shall be signed by the presiding officer of each house of the Legislature, and in the presence of the house over which he presides, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives having failed to sign this bill as required by the Constitution, the same is disapproved.

T. M. CAMPBELL,
Governor of Texas.
